Ho-hum! Another year;

Same old place;

Same old thing;

Oh, well —

But NO!

Carpenters had been (and were still) at work. There were new floors, freshly painted lockers, paneled walls, lowered ceilings and new lights, and some new faculty members (see pp. 62-63).

Partitions provide new office space and new rooms for new courses. The ICT room even has a carpet!

A mobile classroom adds space to the Junior High.

A former elementary classroom was subdivided to creat new teaching centers. Colorful murals and a new tile entrance add to the appearance of the cafeteria.

Maybe this won't be just another year, after all!

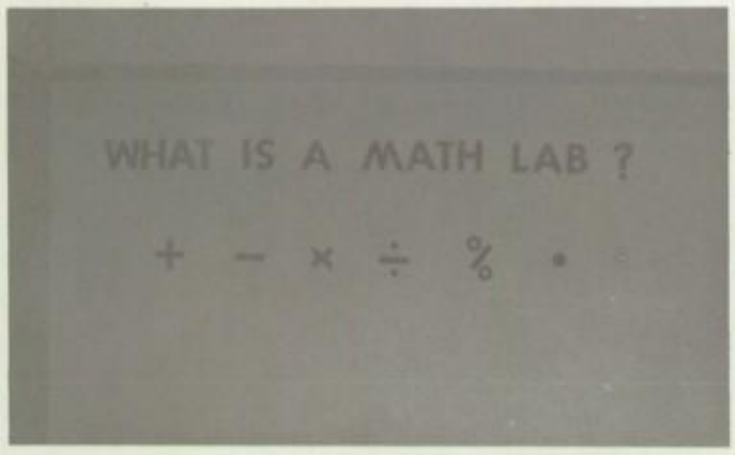
I.C.T. Program Established

The Industrial Cooperative Training program is a joint effort of schools and employers in business and industry to provide on-the-job training which will prepare students for employment in areas of their interests and capabilities. It requires one or two years of training in industry supplemented by in-school related instruction. This program brings together the work forces of the community and the school in an effort to teach and train the students to acquire a salable skill upon completion of high school.

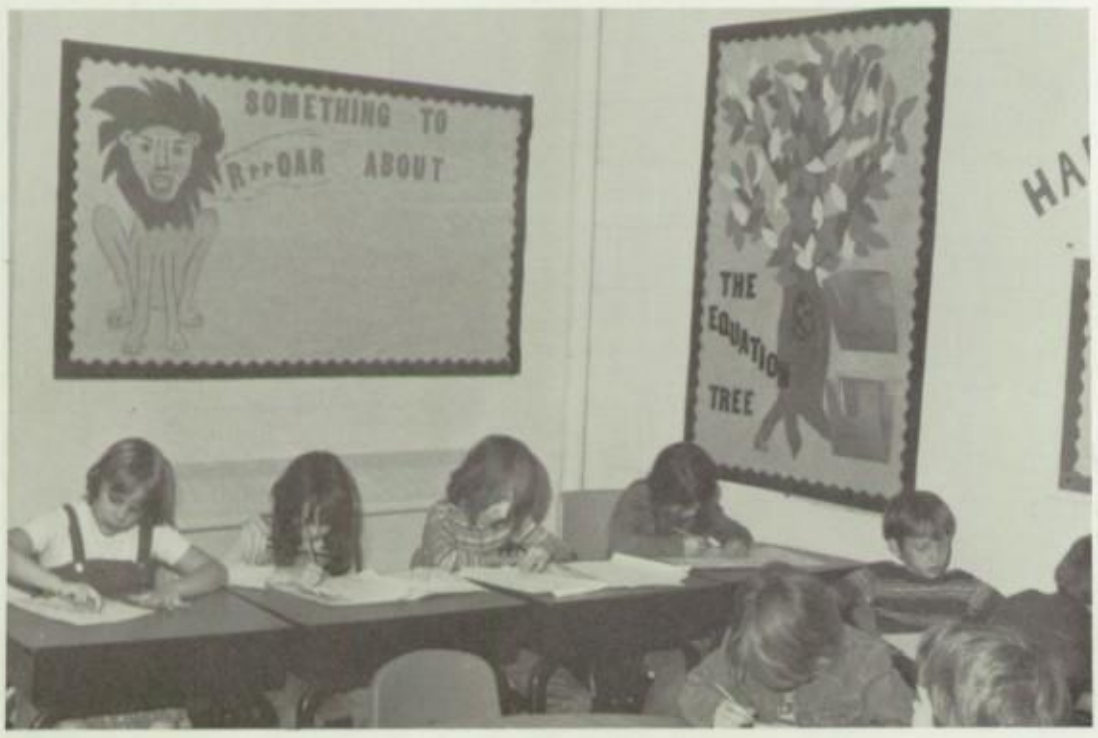
While I.C.T. is designed primarily for students who are not planning to go to a university or college, a student may arrange his courses to meet college requirements and still take advantage of the I.C.T. program.

I.C.T. class uses video-tape for self-evaluation in job interviewing practice.

County Begins Remedial Math Labs



The remedial Math Lab program, under the supervision of Miss Denise Lacky and two aides, Mrs. Sherry Plummer and Mrs. Brink Loflin, in the high school, and Debbie Brooks and Mary Ruth Moody, in the elementary school, was begun in the Davidson County School System to assist students who have experienced problems in basic math computation skills. The Math Lab is designed to individually instruct each student through a series of skills by which he remediates himself to grade level.



Channel 8 TV Films Kindergarten Thanksgiving Dinner

Kindergarten students shared with teachers in preparation of the meal.

North Carolina history becomes alive with a new and different beat.

Seniors defeat Juniors, and the Faculty/Student versus Community game ends in a tie in Donkey Ball games.

New Home Ec. Activities

Members of the Family Living class were involved in a new experience this year as they learned how to make Christmas wreaths and other decorations under the professional instruction of Harvest House personnel.

F.H.A.'ers sing Christmas carols as they visit in area nursing home.

Child Care Services is a laboratory-type occupational training program for advanced Home Economics students. Participants learn about the types of jobs involving child care and development, the scope and nature of such jobs, and responsibilities assumed by teacher aides.

Experience is gained through student observation, participation in supervising and assisting children with personal habits and with creative play activities, and creating and conducting activities which promote social, mental, and physical growth of children.

Some of the specific activities done were the making of toys, games, bulletin boards, and Christmas crafts, preparing children for lunch and naps, conducting playground activities, reading stories, doing clerical work, changing diapers, and rocking and burping the babies.

Gym Becomes Setting For P.T.A. Sponsored Fall Festival

With Students Having Greater Responsibilities

One of the items purchased with proceeds from the Fall Festival was a new copying machine. This machine aids Mr. Miller in sending off transcripts as well as helping other staff members in copying materials needed.

Students Gain Experience Assisting Teachers

Begun last year on an experimental basis, a program was expanded this year in which students assist teachers in grades K-12. At the beginning of the year the students and teachers fill out a contract specifying the various duties to be performed by the students. Upon satisfactory completion of this contract, students receive a unit of credit. More important, the students learn about working with children and gain a better understanding of some of a teacher's responsibilities.

Members of boys' basketball team work to help pay for new uniforms and warm-up suits.

Cheerleaders model new outfits.

Cheerleaders sponsor bonfire before homecoming game — a new activity for this school generation.

Active Booster Club supports athletic program. Among activities are the selling of hot dogs during ball games and sponsoring "Meet the Team Night."

Junior High interest periods provide time for creativity and sharing of self.

Old Traditions Blend In With New Activities At DHS

Christmas Highlighted By Various Activities

This is my bulletin board. Kathy

Christmas is always a busy time at DHS and this year was no exception. Some of the highlights included the Christmas dance. Dana Carroll, escorted by Bill Sigmon, was crowned Christmas Queen. Tamara Lanier, escorted by Keith Garner, was Maid of Honor.

Santa Claus made his annual trip to the Christmas assembly, where both the religious significance and old traditions were brought into perspective by skits and singing. Another annual event, the Beta Club Christmas party, was held. The faculty was given a Christmas party by the cafeteria workers. Even with the new looks at DHS, the familiar traditions were alive at Christmas.

Dedication

When the members of the Senior Class were asked for the nominee for the dedication, the decision was not difficult. When one sees his smiling face, warmth and affection fill the air. His great sense of humor follows him wherever he goes. His helpful attitude shows his true Raider spirit, for he is always involved in the work of the school. While short in physical stature, he is extremely large in the affection of the student body. He helps out in any type of project around school ranging from setting out shrubs, to repairing school furniture or lending tools so others can repair their work. We can think of no higher tribute to pay to any teacher than to be able to say, "He is a true friend!" Therefore the 1978 edition of the PHOENIX is proudly dedicated to "Kep," MR. RONALD KEPLEY.

Mr. And Miss Red Raider

Mark Bivens And Myra Terrell

Because of their unselfish attitudes toward promoting school spirit, Mark Bivens and Myra Terrell have been chosen by the faculty as Mr. and Miss Red Raider. Not only do these two Seniors enthusiastically support the athletic program, but they also cooperate with the faculty and student body in both curricular and extracurricular activities. These two ideally represent the spirit of Denton High School.

Eight New Teachers Join Denton High Faculty

In addition to the new physical improvements of the school building, eight new faces met the students as they returned to school this year. Our curiosity about these teachers has been somewhat satisfied as we have learned more about them.

Mr. Bill Wall, a North Carolina State University graduate, teaches Chemistry, Biology, and General Math. His hobbies include golf, guitar, collecting stamps, and TELLING JOKES! Mr. Wall's extracurricular duties include serving as assistant football coach and as coach of the J.V. Boys Basketball Team.

Along with the new ICT program, we have a new teacher, Mr. Marvin Sandifer. His hobbies include golf and tennis. He graduated from High Point College. Mr. Sandifer also has been named Athletic Director.

Mr. Alan Brumfield is Denton High's new Typing, Consumer Math, and Officiating in Athletics teacher. He graduated from High Point College. His hobbies include hunting and fishing. Mr. Brumfield is head Football Coach.

Miss Denise Lackey is another new member of Denton High School Faculty. She graduated from High Point College and is head of the new Math Program and Math Lab. Her hobbies include tennis and needlework.

Mr. John Doby is our American and World History teacher. He did his undergraduate work at High Point College and his graduate work at Appalachian State University and UNC-G. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.

A familiar person but stationed in a different place is Mrs. Judy Koontz. Mrs. Koontz taught most of us in Junior High and she now teaches Family Living, Home Economics I, Advanced Home Economics, and Child Care Services. She graduated from East Carolina University. Her hobbies consist of needlework and cooking.

Mrs. Sherry Plummer is the Math Aide. She graduated from Thomasville High School. Her hobbies include working around the house, and looking after her two children.

Mrs. Southern is a graduate from Appalachian State University. She helps students with reading and math. Her hobbies include sewing and needlework.

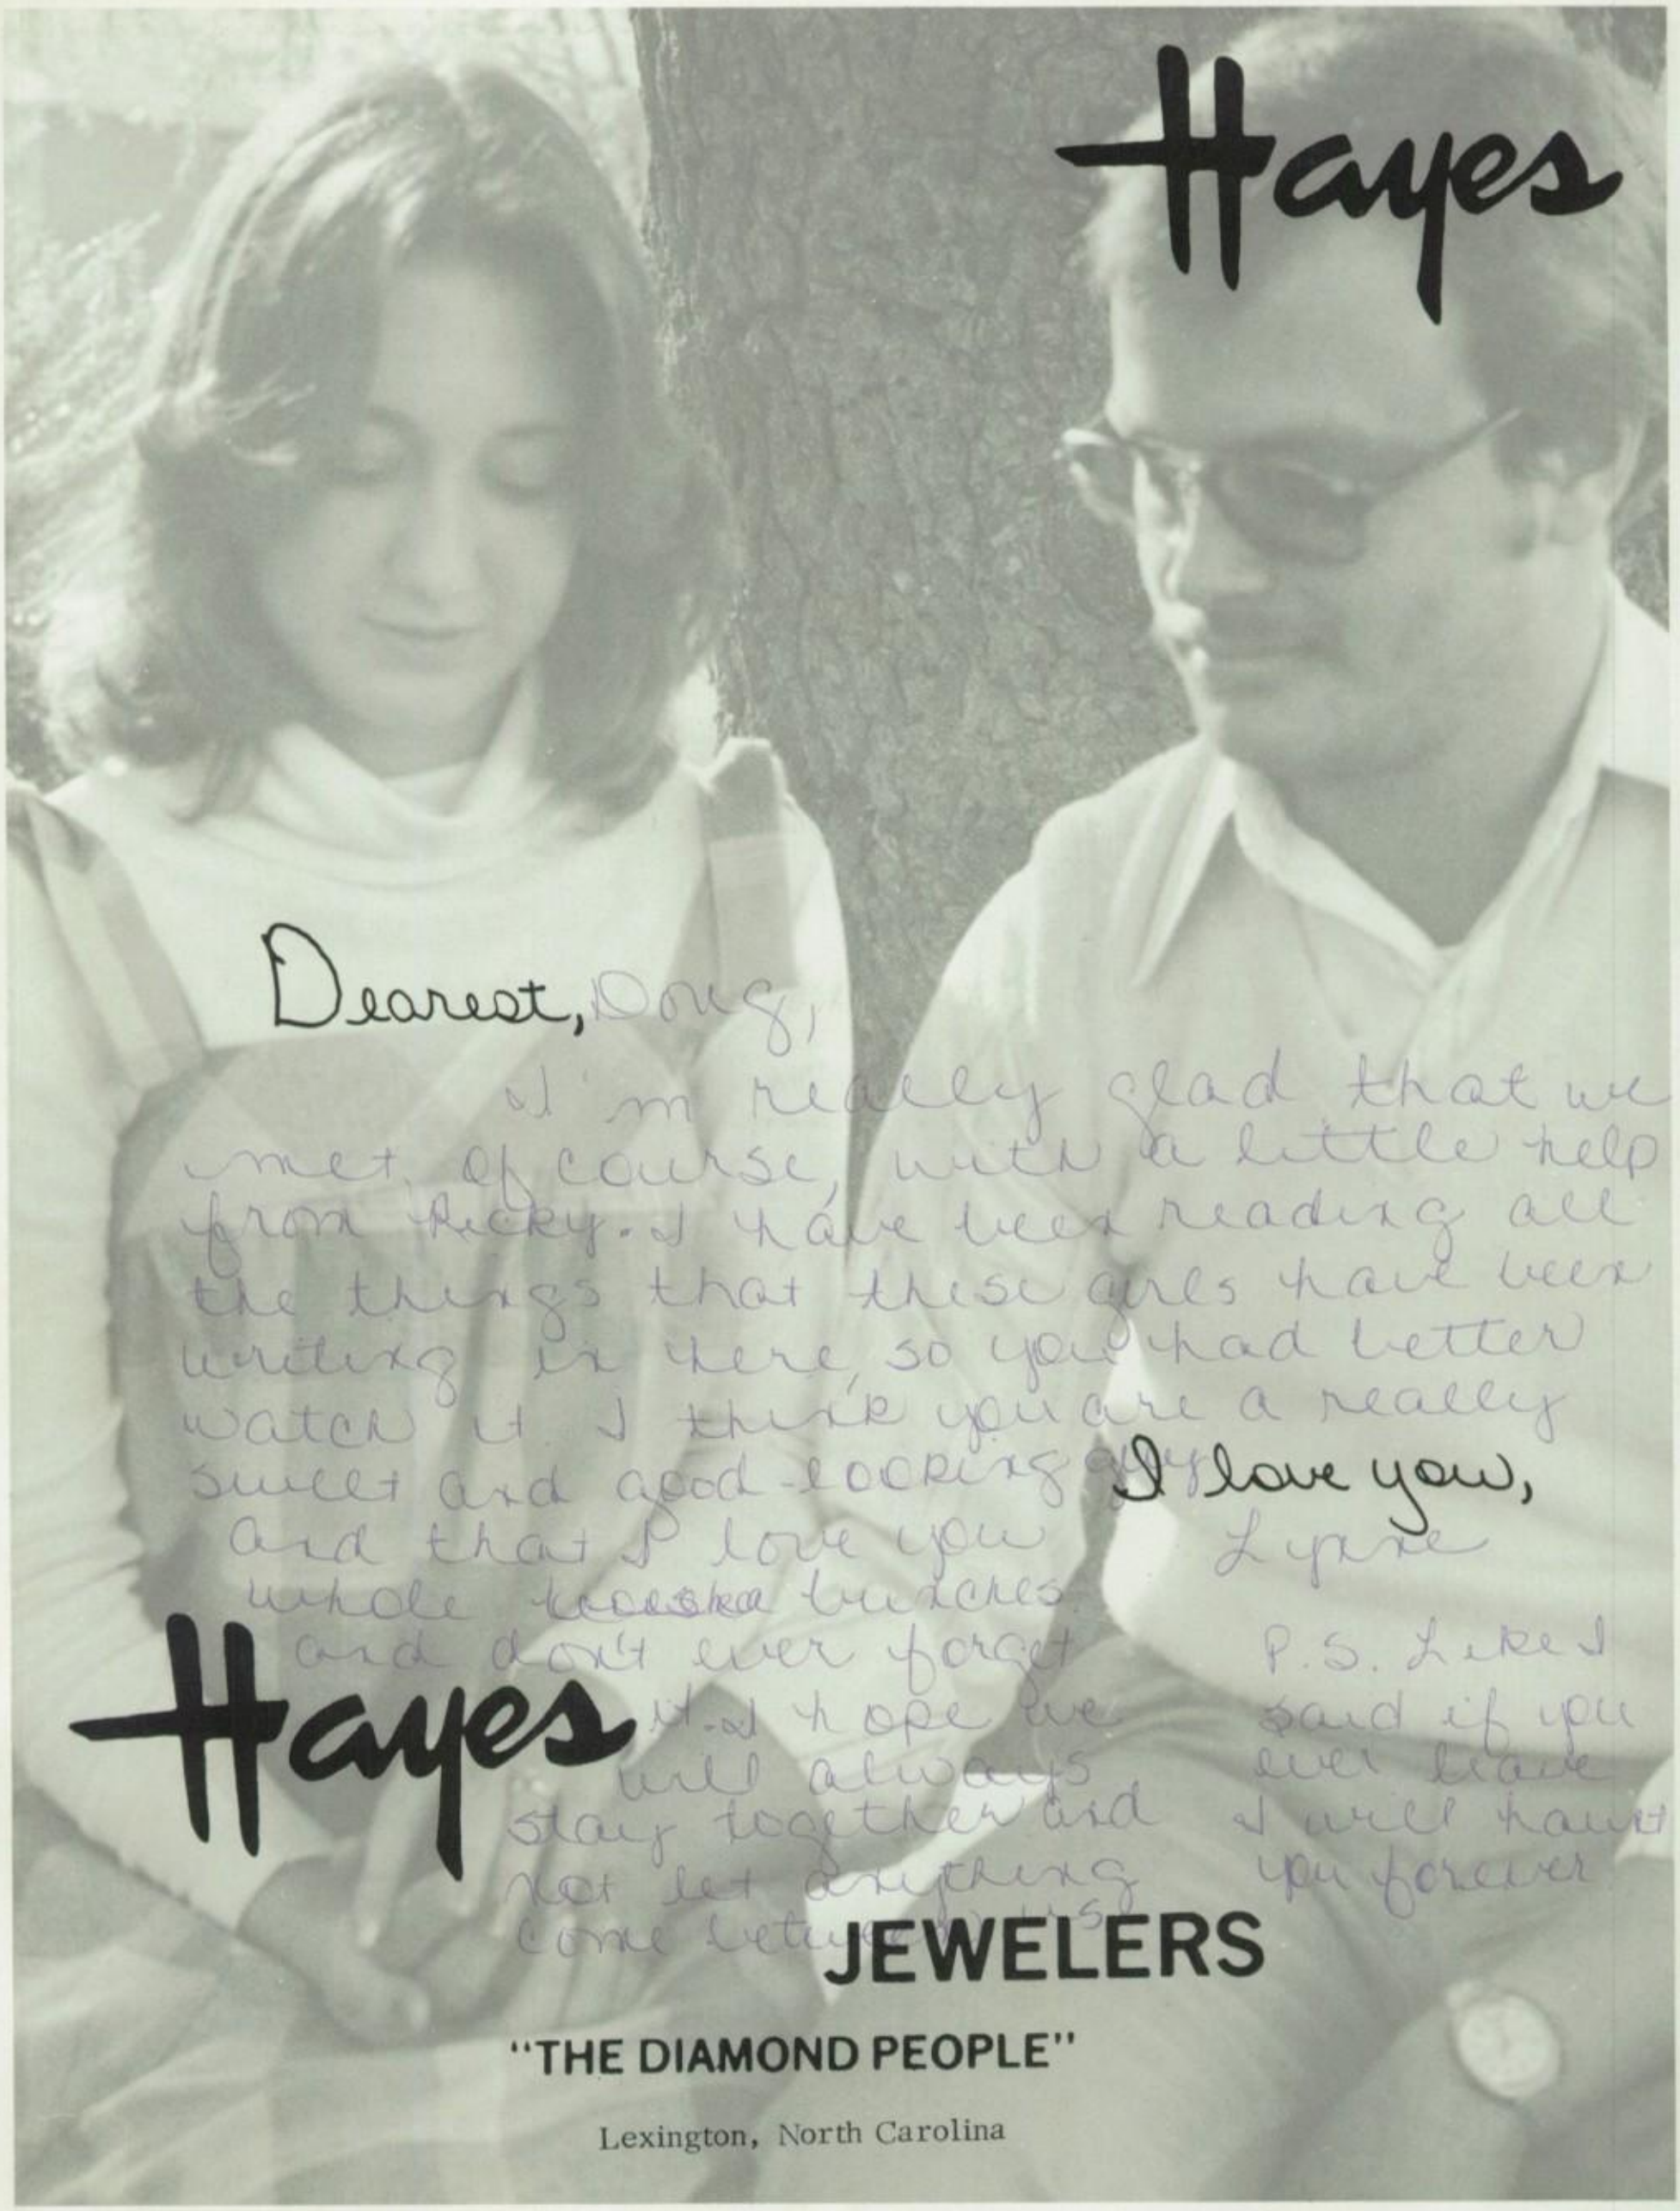
WE ARE CONSUMERS



Hayes
Dearest, Doug,
I'm really glad that we met, of course, with a little help from Ricky. I have been reading all the things that these girls have been writing in here, so you had better watch it. I think you are a really sweet and good-looking guy. I love you,
And that I love you whole kooshka buckets and don't ever forget it. I hope we will always stay together and not let anything come between us
Lynn
P.S. Like I said if you ever leave I will haunt you forever

I DON'T KNOW WHY OUR TRIBE CAN'T END THIS WAR WITH THE GRUGS. THEY'RE NOT SUCH A BAD BUNCH.
I LIKE THE GRUG TRIBE TOO! BUT THERE'S MORE TO WAR THAN MEETS THE EYE... WATCH IT. HERE THEY COME!
NICE GOING! THEY'RE OUT OF AMMO. DOES THAT MEAN THE WAR'S OVER?
HECK NO! THEY'LL GIVE US 2¢ FOR EACH SPEAR WE RETURN.

Doug,

Well, this is it for you. I'd hate to know this was my last year. I have really enjoyed getting to know you. You are a real sweet guy and I really meant what I said about you being crazy! But you really are a fun person to be around. I'm gonna miss you, too. I'm glad we had History and Spanish II together. I wish you weren't graduating. [illegible] Hey, you [illegible] sign [illegible] But [illegible] don't [illegible] and [illegible] in trouble! Come see me this summer, okay? Oh, and I'm still thinking!

I could start with a bunch of "remember when's" but I won't. Just one... remember at your house when Karen and I were there and your grandmother dropped the fire poker on your grandfather's foot? That was so funny!

Well Doug, I want to wish you the very best of luck in any and everything you do. Have a great summer and a great life. You deserve it!

This year the PHOENIX staff has tried to give an old and a new look at Denton School. Most of these things pictured are very familiar to us now, but will we remember all of this five years from now? The new look consists of the physical improvements along with new faculty members. All of these make Denton School a fun and exciting place to be. The old consists of traditional elements found in any school. We want to bring back the many fun-filled experiences that friends share together.

As my Senior year draws to a close, I have many memories which I do not want to forget because these have been an important part of my life for the past twelve years.

I hope the years to come bring happiness and joy to everyone.
